

STOMMPY® Up-right Protector

Upright Protector

recommended for:

Application

Light and economic protection, easy to install and remove when necessary. Its particular structure allows to absorb the impact energy by deforming its structure thereby mitigating the damage provoked by the impact. Due to its high visibility features, this light but effective protection helps alerting the operator and preventing collision with the rack.
